

Jelita Pandjaitan

Partner, Linklaters, Singapore

Jelita Pandjaitan leads the Southeast Asia disputes practice of Linklaters conducting and advising clients on significant and complex cross-border commercial disputes through arbitration, courts and mediation. Ms Pandjaitan assists corporate and financial institution clients throughout the region and in collateral proceedings in London and New York.

Ms Pandjaitan specialises in financial and energy and resource arbitration in the major Asian seats and using all the major institutions and rules (SIAC, HKIAC, ICC, UNCITRAL) including obtaining interim injunctive relief and enforcing arbitral awards in regional courts. Nominated by her peers, Ms Pandjaitan was appointed to the P.R.I.M.E Finance Panel of Experts for her invaluable legal and market expertise in financial products disputes. She is also a Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and has conducted multiple appointments as sole or co-arbitrator. Ms Pandjaitan regularly speaks at arbitration conferences and seminars and has published several articles on arbitration developments.

Ms Pandjaitan also has extensive experience in local and foreign regulatory and internal investigations, as well as advising on the contentious aspects of cross-border transactions, including conducting due diligence on bribery and corruption risks. She has been endorsed as a Recommended Lawyer for Financial Services Regulatory by Legal 500 Asia Pacific, 2019 where she is noted for her strong “focus on cross-border disputes and investigations for major international banks and corporations.”

Ms Pandjaitan is admitted in Hong Kong and Australia and is fluent in English and Bahasa Indonesia.
