

Byung-Choi (B.C.) Yoon

Attorney, Kim & Chang, South Korea; Member, ICC International Court of Arbitration

Byung-Choi (B.C.) Yoon is a partner at Kim & Chang and the co-chair of the firm's International Arbitration and Cross-Border Litigation Practice.

Mr Yoon has extensive experience in international arbitration and cross-border disputes. He has represented the firm's clients in a broad range of fields such as mergers and acquisitions, overseas investments, construction and joint venture in more than 200 arbitration cases in various jurisdictions, under various rules.

He is currently a court member of the ICC International Court of Arbitration after serving as a member of the SIAC Board from 2009. He currently serves on the arbitration panels of ICSID, SIAC, ICDR, HKIAC and KCAB. In addition to his international career, his arbitration expertise has been highly valued in Korea where he was the President of the Korean Council for International Arbitration (KOCIA), playing a key role in promoting international arbitration and revising the KCAB's International Arbitration Rules. At the same time, he served as the Secretary General of the Seoul International Dispute Resolution Centre (Seoul IDRC).